

Trainer Bio: Taylor Scott

Professional Experience

Taylor Scott is a best-selling author, inspirational keynote speaker, and leadership development consultant. Through his books, workshops, keynotes, and one-on-one coaching, he inspires audiences and consults leaders of Fortune 500 companies and lifestyle brands nationwide to become their best, deliver their best, and experience the best life possible. Taylor leverages his personal experiences and twenty years working in the hospitality industry for Disney Parks and Resorts, Gaylord Hotels and Resorts, Wynn Resorts, and The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas to connect with and inspire leaders at all levels.

Speaking Experience

Taylor has delivered a number of keynotes and leadership development workshops since 2011 for colleges, universities, school systems, and Fortune 500 companies in corporate America. His energy, enthusiasm, and engaging style of storytelling leave audiences feeling inspired, encouraged, and ready to give their best.

Education and Certifications

Taylor earned a bachelor's of science in business administration from Florida Southern College in Lakeland, FL and a master's in management of hospitality from Cornell University's School of Hotel Management in Ithaca, NY.